

Life-Death, Poetry, And Pesticides
Cassandra Brown

3:00 walk: Fostering Art and Nature at your workplace
Jessie Nichols

Shannon McDonald

Rancho del Oso Interpretative Hike

• Kenneth Koll

Stewardship of Garden of Eden

Elise Fleishman

Watsonville Wetlands Watch
Citizen Science in Pajaro Valley High School And Steward Training

Rich Palm

Arboretum Tree Walk

Shannon McDonald

David Fierstein

Salmon: an animated Life-cycle game

Family activities at the Arboretum Exploration backpacks
and a scavenger hunt

Eva Echenique
Soil texture testing: interactive
Science in the classroom

Clara Elliott

Healing with Nature:
Postcards for Stanford
Hospital Activity boxes

Capstones

New Zealand Garden:

Nick Carmona

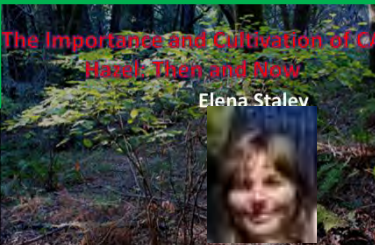

Native animal species in a non-native garden

Richardson Bay Audubon Center
Invertebrate Inventory

A GUIDE TO THE FLORA OF LAST CHANCE
To connect
To inspire
To protect

The Importance and Cultivation of Rancho del Oso
Elena Staley

designed plant communities for Santa Cruz gardens

Vincent Waring

Capturing wonder through Needlework: a donation to The Arboretum

Angela Harrington

Erica Schroeder

Radical Mycology

decompose toxins → cultivate life
Building the world we want on the substrate of the old

Melody Overstreet

Margaret Hetherington

UCSC Ravine Walk
Plant guide
Cameron Clark

Celia Contreras

Planting the future Garden:
Helping with an EcoArt Project

Denise Chesin

Private Eye Program
For the Arboretum

WELCOME TO THE PRIVATE EYE!

Print workshop: seed saving and plant life cycle

Donna Frompton

Pacoima Naturalists:
Nurturing our Roots