When: Saturday, December 2, 2017
10 am – 4pm

Where: Arboretum Rd., off High Street, west of Western Dr.
Follow signs. Free Parking

Cost: FREE; 10 am to 4 pm

Description: A collection of holiday gifts, plants, and handmade treasures you won't find anywhere else!

Nestled upon a hill in the UC Santa Cruz Arboretum lies Norrie's Gift and Garden Shop. Only here can you find a stunning array of handmade wreaths, ornaments, centerpieces, succulent pumpkin planters, dish gardens, candles, and more, that draw upon the Arboretum's rare and extraordinary collection of natural materials.

This shop also curates a collection of books, jewelry, toys, scarves, logo apparel and accessories that have drawn accolades from local press to Sunset Magazine.

Join in the festivities: tastings and displays by local vendors and artists. Sample cider, hot chocolate and homemade cookies along with abundant holiday cheer. Members enjoy a 10% DISCOUNT. Memberships and Gift Certificates can be purchased as well.

Norrie's Gift and Garden Shop is run entirely by volunteers. The UC Santa Cruz Arboretum is a 50-year-old treasure and beloved destination for the central coast and local community. All profits support the Arboretum's conservation, education, research and horticulture programs.
