2 pm - 5 pm afternoon of demonstrations and workshops

Art in the Arboretum "Sculpture" artists:

Jeff Arnett, Marilyn Kuksht, Jennifer Hennig, Coeleen Kiebert, Anna Martin,
Kirk McNeill, Jenni ward, Jamie Abbott, Cristie Thomas and Scott Lindberg

Workshop for this First Friday

Jamie Abbott's sculptures are inspired by biomorphic forms, which he encapsulates with organic elements.

Using thin gauge wire and wire tools Jamie will guide participants in the wrapping and connecting of branches, pods, leaves, and many other materials collected from the Arboretum gardens.

2:00 pm - 3:15 pm & 3:45 pm - 5:00 pm 20 people max per workshop

Participants are welcome to take their sculpture home or install it in the arboretum for exhibition until October 10th.

Demonstration for this First Friday

Local Blacksmith and sculptor Kirk McNeill will bring his portable forge and give blacksmithing demonstrations from 3pm to 5pm

The event is Free

Participation in Jamie's workshop is

$10 for members of the arboretum and $20 for non-members

Please call the arboretum office at 502-2998 to sign up.

The Arboretum is located along the western edge of the UCSC campus.

By car: At the intersection of Bay and High Streets (the main entrance of campus), proceed west along High Street, which turns into Empire Grade Road. Approximately one-half mile up High Street, you will see the Arboretum entrance on your right.

Hours: The Arboretum is open daily for visitors from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
